Eddie was such a wonderful child. He was such a bright light in my class. He was always so excited to try new things at school. He was such a little spitfire and he liked to try and take care of his classmates. He told me he was a big boy and the oldest so he needed to help. I am so happy that I got to spend so much time with him and to have gotten to know his mom. God bless his entire family. I hope they can find comfort.
