“ I've been a friend of Terry and her family since high school. Her sister Debby being my best friend, Terry too was my friend. She was always fun, kind and a hard worker. I've a few funny stories about her through the years. She was a strong person, as has been evident over the last 2 years, during her hard-fought battle with cancer and other issues. She has passed that strength and kindness on to her daughter, who has shown so much love, kindness and patience, taking such good care of her Mother. Terry has so many friends and family who will miss her humor, kindness and love. I know she will leave a great loss in the lives of those that will miss her, but, all the memories will keep alive her strong and loyal spirit. Love Patti Cox

“ My name is Andrew Allen. I worked with Terry for a number of years at The Frisco Bar, and having her there turned it from a chore to a fun way to pass the hours. We could just look at each other and start laughing. It was as if we could read each other's minds. And now to know I will see her on this earth no more, I feel so very sad at her passing, which was our loss.

I wish to reach out to her family with my sincere condolences. Know that I am praying for you and keeping you ever in my thoughts and always near to my heart. May God bless you who had the privilege of being close to her. Please be at peace.

Terry's close friend,
Andrew Allen
