“ I’ve had the pleasure of knowing Barbara for many years and I’ve always considered her to be such a delight. No matter what she was facing, she had such a positive attitude and that wonderful little laugh that she had made my day many times. These last few months in visiting her, her sweet spirit remained and her strong faith was so evident. I will miss her.

“ Barbara was a very good sister to me and my brother. She was very giving and unselfish in her teen years. After our father died,, she was tasked with the responsibility of taking care of us while our Mother worked. She took this responsibility very serious and watched us, never left us alone and made sure we were well cared for. I will be forever grateful for that.

She was a great Mother and cared for the children, giving up her personal needs for theirs. A very good cook and supported them in their sports activities. She will be missed by all. I tried to call her once a week at least. Good-by, sister. I love you still.
