

Betty Jean Parlour

October 2, 1922 - November 10, 2012

Memorial service for Betty Parlour, 90, of Enid, will be 10:00 AM, Wednesday, November 14, 2012, at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel, with Rev. William Smith officiating. Cremation arrangements are by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home & Crematory. Betty was born to Jack Leondus and Mildred Clair (Childers) Thomas on October 2, 1922, in Enid, and passed away on Saturday, November 10, 2012, in Enid. Betty grew up in Enid, and graduated in 1940 from Enid High School. She married George Smith and they had two children. Betty helped run the dairy until they moved to Bartlesville. After George passed away, Betty moved back to Enid in the late 1970's. On April 3, 1993 she married William K. Parlour. She enjoyed traveling, and playing cards. She is survived by her husband William "Keith" Parlour, of the home; two children Kendall Smith of Bartlesville, and Kathryn Johnson of Drummond; one grandchild John Williams; and one great grandchild Shelbi Williams. Betty was preceded in death by her first husband George Smith, son in law Kenneth Johnson, and brother Jack L. Thomas. Memorials may be made to OMRF-Diabetes or Cancer Division
