“ Letting her family know that Beulah was such a sweet and kind lady. When the Christian Church of the Covenant would sing at The Commons on the first Sunday, she was always in the audience, singing and smiling the entire time. A beautiful lady who lived a beautiful life. God Bless All of You!

“ Beulah, I am SO going to miss visiting you. You and I became even better friends when you moved to The Commons. I will miss your sweet smile and your ornery personality. I knew you weren't feeling well last Sunday when I went to get you to come to the main hall and listen to your church choir. That "spunk" of yours just wasn't there. I'll never forget you clapping your hands and singing along with us each time we sang. You are precious, and I know you are now one of God's special angels.
