“ Bill, I still have fond memories of the rides around the square for hours, for summer baseball games, while all the time having a keen eye out for any out-of-town visiting ladies. Miss you and see you later. God Bless.

“ In 1959 & 60, Bill provided transportation between Enid and Alva frequently for a student from Hardtner and myself many times while we all attended Enid Business College. We appreciated it so much. Our prayers and condolences are with your family.

“ Daddy I am going to miss you terribly! I love you to heaven and back and I will hold tight to my memories of you until I get to see you again. You were the best daddy a girl could ever want for. You were always there for me for whatever I needed whether it was a hug or a kick in the butt. I will also miss your funny sense of humor but strangely enough part of that will live on through me! ;0) Finally I am glad for all the time we had together. The last few months just getting to be with you to hold your hand and feed you some of your meals were times that I will hold close to my heart. I think I have your face and your beautiful blue eyes etched in my brain and those memories and thoughts of you will help get me through until I get to see you again!! love you, Your kid!

“ Bill was a great man in my life. He was the love of my mother's life. My mother, Betty, married him 35 years ago. Bill gave her strength at a time when she needed it. Over the past two years she became his strength at a time when he needed it. Bill loved his daughter, Cindy. But when he married mother, she brought five children to him and he loved us all as much. He was strong for each of us in different ways. We all went through alot growing up over the years. You could depend on Bill to give you a good perspective and sometimes just the thought you needed. He loved me and told me so many times. He used to tease me but always said he loved me as his own. He loved his grandchildren and enjoyed spending time with my children and they with him. Shelby and Daniel will miss Grandpa so very much. They loved to visit and bring him his favorite candy when they would come. He loved them and enjoyed hugs and conversations together. I told Bill many times over the years how I was so glad to be a part of his life and that he married my mother. We had many long conversations about life's expectations, difficulties, and losses. Bill was never afraid to show his emotions. My most precious moment was when I first brought my daughter home and he along with all of us cried. He loved her so much. She would come and sit on his knee and talk with him. He would just laugh at her little talk and say how smart she was. Daniel will tell you he was his Grandpa's "favorite" grandson. He loved to read to Grandpa and talk to him. Daniel just visited with him last weekend and Bill couldn't take his eyes off of him. He would just watch Daniel tell him all about school and his activities going on while Bill was trying to interject a thought. They had a nice visit that day. Bill, you will be missed so very much by my mother, your wife, your children and Grandchildren. We love you and wish you peace for the journey to heaven where your parents and brother will meet you. To my mother, your best friend has moved on in peace to the next life. Your memories and love will live on through you and with you always. To Cindy, Your memories, joy and love will be what sustains you through this loss as it will for me. (For death is no more than a turning us over from time to eternity. -William Penn) Bill, I have loved you all my life and will love you still. Peace of the Lord be with you now and into eternity.

“ I was fortunate to have three male figures to influence me and look up to growing up...my Dad and two brothers...they were and are my heroes. Dad was the one I looked to to keep me safe and take care of me and he did that very well...I always knew I if I was in trouble he would get me out...my brother Vernon was seven years older so I was just a nuisance and he is responsible for toughening me up...lol...I knew he loved me and no one else could pick on me but he introduced me...maybe initiated would be a better choice...to many "games" such as roping Pete around the neck with a rope multiple times...left some nasty marks...he got in some trouble for that one...playing catch with a baseball which turned into a game of burnout which was complicate further by the fact the mit I had had absolutely no padding...sure encouraged me to catch it in the pocket...etc...Bill was 11 years older than me and I never got to be around him that much growing up...if finally dawned on me that I was possibly definintely not planned to be born...but they put up with me anyway...Bill always kinda looked out for me...when I was four or five he bought be a record player with money he made throwing newspapers...he had a Cushman motor scooter and went to see grandma garvie in mooreland once...I guess he was always grown up in my eyes...I always worried about both my brothers when they moved out of town and always looked forward to their visits...many remembrances...too little space...I just know I love him and always will...and I hope to see him and the rest of my loved ones soon...I also want to thank Jesus first of all though...for his many blessings and letting me be raised with the best family any boy could ever have...Love you Bill!!

“ I am a Beeson but, I always was made to feel like a part of the Garvie family. My hope is in my faith that Vernon & Linda both are catching up with Bill in heaven right now. I am sure the stories will be endless. I cherish the Beeson/ Garvie times growing up and I feel I knew Bill well through a lot of stories Vernon would share. Blessings to all the Garvie's

“ Once again, I find myself heartbroken. Uncle Bill was one tough guy (no joke), but he always had a joke to brighten your day, too. I remember well all the stories & laughter we shared at Thanksgiving & Christmas growing up. Uncle Bill always liked to hear how the younger generation had carried on the Garvie tradition of finding ourselves at odds with someone, and subsequently resolving the situation. Uncle Bill had a tough exterior, but he also had a tender heart. I recall visiting him at the hospital after he had suffered a stroke, and Cousin Greg & I had laid hands on him & prayed for him. He might not want me to tell you this, but he broke down into tears. Uncle Bill reminded me a lot of Johnny Cash... I believe he loved the Lord, but I think he had a hard time (like most of us do) with accepting the helpful suggestions from others on how he ought to live his life. Everyone struggles in this world... but at the end, there is hope of Peace & Rest. Uncle Bill, I find myself hoping the best for you... that you are in Heaven now with the Lord and our family- Glenn, Louise, Vernon & Linda... and that the Circle Remains Unbroken. I love you & I'm going to miss you. I hope to see you there someday soon.

“ Love and prayers are sent to all Bill Garvie's family members, most especially to his first wife, Georgia Taylor and his beautiful daughter, Cindy Kay Garvie. Unfortunately I never had the privilege of meeting Bill, but one thing I know, he had a very loving and caring daughter in Cindy. May God provide all of you comfort in your time of grief and may Bill rest in God's eternal love.
