“ Carl, you were one of the strongest people I've ever met in my life. You built your own business from the ground-up that is beloved by millions. You were also a very strong and protective big brother to my mom. I know you can read this from Heaven. I wish I could have talked with you more one-on-one while on earth, but things were just hard to work out with our family schedules. I will meet you again someday and I'd love to sit down at a table with you for a cup of coffee at your favourite spot, in the glory of Heaven. Love you and miss you Carl.
