“ Bob and I were very saddened to hear of Carl's passing--we remember the times we shared in Enid; Bob working with Carl at the bowling alley, and remember when we met with them in Colorado Springs for 4th of July one year. We've not seen Carl and B for many years, but both are treasured friends. Our prayers are with the family. ~Carol Jones

“ Oh, B, you have been on my mind since I saw Carl's obituary in the paper. He sure loved his softball and Enid First Nazarene. So sorry you are going through this! May God continue to keep you and comfort and give peace to you during the weeks ahead. He is our mighty God! He will provide all things that you need! Love, Rose Gustafson and Jerry

“ Bea, Our deepest condolences about your loss, You were always there for him and we thank you. I'm sorry we can not make it. Alden and Sarah are not able to travel and we are keeping them inside and away from the Covid-19, best we can, we have missed several funerals and weddings. We will miss Carl and sure he is looking down on us. Carl always had a good story and always had a good outlook on life. We will always remember Carl a big guy with a bigger heart. We use to always enjoy hunting or target practice when at the Miller Homeplace Farm. Love Marty Miller
