“ My sincerest condolences. I met Carolyn at Ratmom on GOT 7 years ago. She was the sweetest woman and helped me greatly through my divorce. She and I were often up late at night and spoke on the phone often. I never got to meet Carolyn in person, but I will miss her greatly.

“ My condolences to the family.

Carolyn was the best neighbor and friend a person could have. I was one of the lucky ones cause I was privileged to have her come to my house very often. She was such a blessing to my mother in law Betty for the last 2 years of Betty's life. She always brought her beautiful flowers from her garden... Which made her smile so big! Was always making her beautiful gifts that my mother in law cherish and that I now will cherish forever... . I will always remember her kindness... Up to my last day in Enid Oklahoma Carolyn helped me pack and made sure I was able to fit all the plants she gave me in our moving truck.... I still have the miniature Rose bush growing in my garden in memory of my sweet friend Carolyn. RIP sweet Carolyn... Dance with the angels

“ Carolyn was truly a one of a kind amazing woman and we'll always remember her. She gave our rats a home when we were unable to care for them any longer and she spoiled them til their last days. We loved that she was a gamer too! She was a pretty awesome woman and was always kind.

The world needs more people like Carolyn. It would be a far better place.

I've known Carolyn online now for nearly 30 years. I first met her on an online game and we became fast friends. I am the one who sent her a sword about as tall as she was. And a kimono. It seemed appropriate, because I thought she would appreciate those. We lost a mutual friend to breast cancer. When my mother went through chemo,. Carolyn sent head covers she made. We shared my mother's passing. We shared her initial fight with cancer. I've been away from social media for awhile and only returned now to share my recent good fortune with friends and family. Only to learn of my much greater loss. She has been and will always be one of dearest friends. I wish all who knew and loved her solace at this moment in time when it seems the peaceful world is turned upside down.
