“ I met Cecil when I scheduled a Concealed Carry Class with him in 2010. I arrived at the Broadway Tower Bldg at 9:00 AM on a Saturday morning and I was the only one who showed up. It was just Cecil and myself. He loved to talk about his past and I loved listening to him. I didn't arrive home until 8:30 PM that Saturday. I'll never forget Cecil and the time I spent with him. Sadly, our paths never crossed again and I just recently became aware of his passing, nearly two and one half years later. Godspeed to you Cecil, meeting you was a delight and the pleasure was all mine.
