

Cecil Womack

March 5, 1935 - July 6, 2014

The Celebration of Life for Cecil Womack, age 79, will be at 10:00 AM Wednesday, July 9, 2014, at First Baptist Church, Enid, with Rev. Keith Miller and Rev. Richard Stephens officiating. Burial will follow in Ames Cemetery, with arrangements by Anderson-Burris Funeral Home. Visitation with family present will be Tuesday evening 5:30 – 7:00 PM at the funeral home. Cecil was born to James and Zada (Kolb) Womack on March 5, 1935, in Webster County, Mississippi, and passed away Sunday, July 6, 2014, in Enid. Cecil grew up in rural Mississippi, and graduated from Cumberland High School. He served in the U.S. Army from 1958 through 1959. In 1961, Cecil graduated from Mississippi State University with a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering. He worked for the federal government in Colorado, Texas and Nebraska as a project construction engineer for water and electric power projects, retiring in 1994. Cecil placed his trust in Jesus Christ at an early age and had a deep relationship with God throughout his life. Cecil was active in church and served as a deacon in each church he held membership. He was a member of First Baptist Church, Enid. Cecil's hobbies included woodworking, gardening and reading. He loved his family and enjoyed traveling to visit them. Cecil was a loyal and faithful husband, father, and friend. He will be remembered as kind, hard-working, wise and generous. He is survived by wife Karen; three children, Wayne and Kelly Womack of Ft. Smith, Arkansas, Janel and Sam Kiniaru of Ft. Worth, Texas, and Paula Womack of Seattle, Washington; four grandchildren, Chris, Natalia, Micah and Gabriel; brother Herbert Womack of Tifton, Georgia; and sisters Nora Spencer of Mantee, Mississippi, and Aver Lee O'Neal of Clinton, Mississippi. Cecil was preceded in death by his parents, six brothers, and one sister. Memorials may be made to First Baptist Church, Enid, Falls Creek Camp Cabin Building Fund or Oklahoma Baptist Disaster Relief.
