“ We are sad not to be with you all today. Your Mom spent a lot of time with our family in the 80s and was one of my Mom’s BEST friends even after all the years apart. It never mattered how much time had passed. Your family has a very special place in our hearts! All our love, Jamie Risley-Hamilton and family.

“ I am really saddened to hear of Cheryl's passing. She and Alan were some of the first friends I made when I moved to Enid. I enjoyed working side by side with her at the post office. We shared many wonderful conversations and some good times! I will always remember those moments. Prayers for the family at this difficult time.

“ My Aunt Cher loved everyone unconditionally and unapologetically. Her smile and laugh lit up the room and her hugs always fit perfectly! She encouraged you and always wanted the best for you. Your life was better because of her. Such a strong woman who I will forever love and admire. I am praying for all those who love and miss her.
