“ Clark Spray was a warm and caring soul; proud father, grandfather and husband. I first met Clark in 1977, when his son, Jeff, and I enrolled in college together, and pledged the same fraternity. We would always look forward to Clark's trips to Norman with Patsy. His sense of humor and his smile was always on display - and his distinct laugh could be heard up and down the hallways. He was so proud of his children and grandchildren. Over these last forty years, I had the great pleasure of hearing him proudly speak of his son, Jeff - who is the greatest son that a father could've been blessed to have. I always knew when he was about to speak of Jeff - he would get a tear in his eye, and just shake his head and humbly say that he wasn't really sure how Jeff turned out to be such a great son and friend to so many. For those of us who have had the pleasure of knowing both of these fine men, we all know! As we reflect on a life well lived with Clark, we all have the awesome pleasure of experiencing his legacy through our relationships with his wife and children.

Love always,

“ *Patsy,
I was saddened to hear of the loss of Clark last night. It was just last month that I spoke to him by phone. I was reminded in that call of the truly, special human that he always was. Even though I was only your neighbor for a few short years at the lake, in that time, he was a guiding influence of what is good and right. It was always apparent that he knew what was most important--people and love. His smile could always put anyone at ease. May you be forever comforted knowing he is God's special angel in Heaven. You are all in my prayers.
With Much Love,

“ Clark had the biggest smile in the world for everyone he met. My biggest memory is that he called me his twin brother because we looked so much alike. Clark, I will miss your smile and our conversations until I meet you in heaven in the future. I cannot wait to see your smile again. I am praying for your soul and for Patsy, Jenni, your family and friends that God will comfort all of us in our sorrow. I will remember you forever twin brother.

“ Dear Patsy and family, we are so saddened to hear of Clark's passing. We will always be grateful for your help in finding us our home and we couldn't ask for nicer neighbors. Clark was a truly nice man and we will always remember his sense of humor. Most of our conversations usually ended with us laughing about something. He will be missed.

“ Dear Patsy and family, I was so sorry to hear of Clark's passing. I always thought so much of him. He taught me a lot about real estate back in the day. We had such fun working at Today Realty and riding around with Clark and you in that white Lincoln he drove back then. He was always so fun and a real Gentleman.
