“ She's in the sun, the wind, the rain, she's in the air you breath with every breath you take. She sings a song of hope and cheer, there's no more pain, no more fear. You'll see her in the clouds above, hear her whisper words of love. You'll be together before long, until than listen for her song.

There is no hurting, no suffering, and no pain in Heaven. While we grieve her physical loss, please be comforted by the fact that she is in a far better place now.

Extending our most heartfelt sympathy to you and your family.

*Love,
Alex, Ashley & Charlie Craig*

“ Our deepest condolences to the Gungoll and Henigman families. Claudia and her parents, Wanda and Bud, lived next door to my grandparents (Tom and Catherine Chelf) on Indian Dr in the 70's. My grandparents were so blessed to have the Gungoll family next door and enjoyed having such dear neighbors. My granddad used to laugh and tease Claudia when he had the chance, and they so enjoyed knowing her. May God's blessings surround all of you in the coming days.
