“ Peggy and Cleatus got married just before Sherry and I did. In June of 1964 they lived a couple of houses south of us. It was hotter than the dickens and Peggy and Cleatus loaned us a box fan. We thought we had died and gone to heaven. Peggy gave me, Jim Cox, a ride to Enid so I could go to work. She was working for Schulmber Jay at the time. Went to Woodward several time so Cleatus could race his 1958 Chevy. Rest in peace Cleatus. Will miss you!
