

Corinne H. Smith

May 7, 1916 - April 8, 2013

A funeral service for Corinne H. Smith, age 96, will be at 2:00 PM Thursday, April 11, 2013, at Hunter Christian Church, with Rev. Tommy Donaldson and Brian Meyer officiating. Burial will be in White Cemetery, with arrangements by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home. Corinne was born to Howard and Corinne (Hames) Minton on May 7, 1916, near Timberlake, South Dakota. She graduated from Timberlake High School in 1934. The family moved to Oklahoma, and Corinne continued her education at Phillips University and Northwestern University, where she earned her teaching certificate. She taught in the rural schools of Science Hall School near Marshall, Enterprise School, and Valley Forge School near Hunter. On May 12, 1940, Corinne married Cecil P. Smith. They farmed in the Hunter and Billings areas. After Cecil's death in 1970, she continued to farm and worked as a tax practitioner for 21 years in Garber and Lamont. Corinne is a longtime member of Hunter Christian Church, teaching Sunday School to various ages for over thirty years. She was also active in the Christian Women's Fellowship and Merry Matrons Club. She is survived by children Bruce Smith and wife Christina of Alva, Howard Smith and wife Gail of Denison, Texas, Mary Lassiter and husband Mike of Enid, and Carl Smith of Hunter; twelve grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren; and one great, great-grandchild. Corinne was preceded in death by her parents, husband Cecil, and brother Bruce Minton. Memorials may be made to Hunter Christian Church.
