He was the youngest of the three Rudy boys. David grew up farming and raising animals. He was an animal whisperer and could calm animals and get them to do about anything. He later moved to South Dakota and then to Copeland, Kansas, where he worked in the school system for 15 years. He retired on disability and moved to Enid, Oklahoma. David loved working with the kids in the school and demanded discipline and responsibility from any that he contacted. He was a great influence on the kids.

David had strong opinions on about every subject and was not shy about sharing them when asked. Everyone knew where he stood. David was strong in his Christian beliefs. No one could ask for a better friend.

David was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Daryl.
