“ I am so sorry to find out that David has passed. When we were young we played ball in our back yard many times and had a lot of fun. I remember when the Stubbs' moved to Enid. My mother, Katie, lost her good friend Joann. We were all sad to see them go.

Our hope is in Heaven and seeing our loved one's that have gone on before.

God bless Joe, the boys and their families.

“ When we were young boy's David lived just two blocks down the street. We were good buddies until he and his family moved away in the early 60's. We had reconnected via the Internet in past years and looking forward to him visiting his hometown of Waverly, OH.

“ What a class act. David would always take care of us officials when we were in his care. Always a kind word, and ALWAYS a smile. All that was required when we stepped on the floor at Chisholm was a hand shake and a smile. We never once had to take care of the books because he always did his homework and knew EXACTLY who was going to be there. A very classy man and will be greatly missed by all who came in contact with him. Chisholm basketball will NEVER be same. Our hearts and prayers from officials all across the state are with this family in this time of sorrow.

“ When I first met David, he had substituted for me. And with a genuine smile, he said, "You are a tough teacher." He always had a smile and words of sincere encouragement. He was a pillar of Chisholm Schools. I also had the pleasure of having his two daughters in my class. My heart breaks for this family. And I wish I could give them a huge hug! Please know you are in my heart and prayers! God bless. Vicki Stuever

“ David and i were good friends during high school .We were in most of the same classes and for some reason he would pop off some smart remark about something and the teacher would tell me to be quiet. I would just sit there and say YES ma'am. He will be missed by all. Les Clickner

Just wondering if he might of been related to Otha and Lola Stubbs? Otha and Lola were my great grandparents. Their daughter, my grandmother was Nita Stubbs, later Nita Becker. Sorry for your loss.
