

Dayle Jerome Wilson

December 15, 1948 - May 15, 2012

A memorial service for Dayle Jerome Wilson, age 63, will be at 11:00 AM Saturday, May 19, 2012, at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel, with Chaplain Ron Stone officiating. Dayle was born to Doyle and Goldie (Webb) Wilson on December 15, 1948, in Arkansas City, Kansas, and passed away Tuesday, May 15, 2012, at his home in Enid. Dayle grew up in Northern Oklahoma. He served in the US Air Force during the Vietnam and Korean Wars. Dayle loved truck driving and had “diesel in his blood”. He also loved fishing and being outdoors. On August 9, 1993, he married Becky Whitmore. Dayle loved leisure travel with his wife, his favorite being a Caribbean cruise. He stated he had found heaven on earth: “The Lido Deck”. Dayle loved playing card with his friends. He was a wonderful husband and friend, who will be sorely missed by all who knew him. Dayle is survived by his wife Becky of the home; brother Ronny Gates of Talahina; sister Becky Weathers of Lahoma; and uncle Wayne Webb of Lahoma. He was preceded in death by his parents, step-father, and uncle. Memorials may be made to OMRF – ALS Division.
