“ Dean was always telling me something unbelievable and I always ended up thinking it was true. He told me his mother learned to water ski at 74. Totally false. The worst one was that he didn't get windshield wipers on his new pickup. I told him all vehicles came with them. He said no they didn't, it he was an option. I actually believed that and asked him what would he do if it rained. He said well I'll drive Fifi, an old car of his. I'd still be believing it if Marsha couldn't hold her laughter anymore!! He was a wonderful man and we loved him dearly. He gave us 45 years of laughter.

“ I have so many great memories of Dean. My family lived across the street from them when I was growing up. After high school I moved to OKC and came home one weekend, Dean decided we were going for a ride on his motorcycle . We were going up and down hills and we skidded and fell off, we got back on and went back to their house. A few days later Marsha Allen me to see if I was ok. I said I am good. She said Dean was co eyed on poison ivy. I know it's terrible but we had a good chuckle. He was one of the best people I have ever known. He will be missed
