A loving father and husband, Dean was a true example of the head of a Christian household. The only person he put before his wife was God. To him the succession of priorities in one's life was truly important: God, spouse, children. To Dean the best way to show love of God was to love the latter unconditionally and because of his love for his children his wife always came first. His mission in life a couple of years ago became to get those "Catholic brownie points" If you would like to know more about those find Haley. She would love to help you out with that for him.

Dean was preceded in death by Dean and Sharron Wooten.

He is survived by his wife, Haley; his children, Elijah, Ezra, Joseph & Alyssa; parents, Darrel & Pat Wooten, & Roberta Fry; and siblings, Robert Allman, Amber Wooten & Alicia Coulter.
