

Delbert A. Sanders

December 17, 1937 - December 20, 2020

Delbert A. Sanders was born on December 17, 1937 in Goltry and passed away on December 20, 2020 in Enid.

He grew up on the family ranch and graduated from Goltry High School. On June 25, 1958, Delbert married Marian Acree in Goltry and they made their home on the family ranch.

He was a cowboy, who enjoyed the cowboy life. Delbert was a horse trainer for many years. The family had a dairy and had a delivery route in Goltry. Delbert was a hard worker and enjoyed taking care of his cattle everyday.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Delbert is survived by his wife, Marian of the home; children, Rowdy and wife, Valarie Sanders of Enid, and Roxann and husband, Steve Mason of Drummond; seven grandchildren and several great grandchildren; sister, Loretta Ramsey of Bartlesville.

A celebration of his life will be at a later date. Cremation arrangements are by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home and Crematory, Enid. Memorials may be made through Anderson-Burriss to St. Jude Children's Hospital.

“Marian, so shocked to hear of Delbert's passing. He was a great friend of my dads, another real cowboy. I cherish the picture we have of dad, Delbert and Swede Sturgeon together. I wish I knew the story behind that photo. Delbert was a great guy and we are so sorry for your loss. Our condolences to you and all the family. ❤️

“So sorry to hear of Delberts passing . He was truly an “original”, His name could be in Webster's behind “ Cowboy” . Was great to be neighbors years ago ! Also really appreciated the relationship he had with my parents through the years. Our sympathy to Marian, Roxanne , Rowdy & Family . John & Char Boehs
