“ Diane was my step mother in law but to me she was my mom she took up for me and was on my side when I had no one she made me feel like one of her own when my dad literally kicked my 7th month old child n me out on the streets at night with no where to go she was there with a shoulder to cry on n somethin to tell u to make u feel better... Diane was more than an amazing person all around she was one of a kind n had a special place in people's hearts she always thought about everyone wake all us kids before she would herself.. It kills me inside to accept that she is no longer here on earth but I cried to god last night n asked him to plz help me n take my hand n watch over me my girls my family divorced or not and I know she is up there looking down on all us like a guardian angel or just someone to vent to still n I'm thankful she doesn't have to suffer any longer she is home and at peace. She worried about me gettin my cervical issue taken care of n would always stress on me about how serious it can get so I made myself n her a lil promise tgat I will mske sure I get that all behind me and I'm gunna try my hardest to stop smoking not only for her but mainly cuz she woikd want me to stop for my girls my daughter paityn was so close to her ma maw Diane n that's wat made me decide to stop smoking was remembering get sweet lil voice say mommy I told u not to smoke no more..
