

Edna Elvina Babcock

June 30, 1944 - September 7, 2015

Edna E. Babcock, age 71 of Enid, was born June 30, 1944, in the family home near Centralia, Oklahoma, to Charley and Ethel Bennett Waggoner, and passed away Monday, September 7, 2015 in Bartlesville. She began her education at Wimer, and later transferred to Centralia, graduating from Bluejacket High School. She also attended Phillips University in Enid. She met the “love of her life,” Allen Babcock, at a Wimer community dance. They dated four years, and then were married August 26, 1960 at Miami, Oklahoma. Together they had one son, James Allen. The couple celebrated 55 years of marriage last month. Edna and her family moved to Enid in 1963, where she was employed at Champlin Oil Company for 13 years. They moved to Bartlesville in 1981, where she worked for Phillips Petroleum, for a number of years before retiring. Some things she loved were her large family, beautiful flowers, Elvis Presley, the Colorado and Canadian Mountains. She enjoyed dancing and having fun with friends. Camping and fishing were also high on her list of things she loved. In addition to her husband Allen, Edna is survived by: son, James Allen and wife Sherry, of Potwin, Kansas, two brothers, John F. Waggoner of Pawhuska, and George M. Waggoner and wife Shirley of South Coffeyville, one sister, Anna M. Wynne and husband Robert of Bartlesville. Special sisters “In-Love”, Margie Cook and Brenda Hagebusch, one grandson, Dustin and wife Amanda Blackfox, three great-granddaughters, and one great-grandson, many nieces, nephews, friends, and co-workers. Edna was preceded in death by three sisters, Dortha Hawk,

Ruth Jarrett, and Ethel Fay Waggoner, two brothers, Charley Leroy Waggoner, and Fred James Waggoner. Edna loved her Savior, Jesus Christ, the life everlasting. A private family service will be held at a later date. Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home and Crematory.

“ Rest in peace my precious little Sister. I give thanks to God for all the wonderful fun we had, and the wonderful precious memories I will cling to. I hope you remembered to break a branch along your way, because I will be following you this time! Rest in peace my darling Sister, you will always be in my heart. And remember, the last of your days with us, I told you to be sure to visit me in my dreams!
