

Edna Johndrow Jenkins

February 9, 1918 - November 22, 2013

A celebration of life for Edna Johndrow Jenkins, 95 will be Tuesday, November 26, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. in the Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel with the Reverend Don Johnson officiating. Burial will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery under the direction of Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home. Edna was born on February 9, 1918 in Clyde, Oklahoma to Wilbur and Ida Mae Campbell and died on November 22, 2013 in Enid, after a long and happy life. She grew up in Hunter, Oklahoma and graduated from Hunter High School. On July 5, 1936, Edna married Clifford Johndrow in Enid. They made their home on the farm, where they raised their four children. Throughout her early life, Edna enjoyed spending much of her time with family and making delicious creations in the kitchen. She was known around the county and state fairs for her prize-winning pies and breads, and known by family as the best cook around. Edna also enjoyed watching sports, and in her later years, one would always know she would be watching her beloved Panthers, Rangers, Cardinals, Cowboys, Sooners, and Thunder. After enjoying 46 years together, Clifford passed away. Edna found love again and married Forrest Jenkins on November 12, 1983 in Hunter. They made their home on the farm where Edna welcomed his two children and their families into her life. She was preceded in death by her two husbands; children, Gary Johndrow and Connie Larson. Edna is survived by children, Linda Handke, St. George, UT, and Nancy Ashton, McCall, ID; stepchildren, Walter Jenkins, Enid, and Wanda Campbell, Kremlin; 12 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren, 4 great, great grandchildren; siblings, Kendall Campbell, Enid, Randall Campbell, Salt Fork, OK, Dale Campbell, North Richland Hills, TX, and Jean Nelson, Whitney, TX; nieces, nephews, and many friends who will miss her greatly. Memorials may be made to the Hunter Christian Church.
