“ She was my Mother's sister, my only Aunt, but there could never have been a better one! She was such a comfort to me after my husband and mother, her sister, both passed in 2008. She was a very loving, caring and intelligent person. She loved God with all her heart and I have no doubt she is singing with His Angels now and forever. I received much comfort from her throughout the years when facing many of life's obstacles and will definitely miss her every day!
