

Floyd W. Wagner

July 7, 1925 - January 11, 2019

A come and go celebration of life for Floyd W. Wagner, 93 of Enid, will be 1:00PM-3:00PM, Thursday, January 17, 2019 at the AB Circle of Life Event Center. Cremation arrangements by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home & Crematory.

Floyd was born on July 7, 1925 in Helena, OK to Willard and Eunice (Brassfield) Wagner and passed away on January 11, 2019 in Enid.

Floyd was in The United States Army Air Corps and served during WWII. He married Peggy Packard on November 23, 1949 in Helena. He retired from Mesa after working there for forty-one years. He enjoyed being in a poker club with many of his friends. Floyd was an avid fisherman and he enjoyed playing tennis for many years. He was an excellent gardener and loved sharing his produce with many of his neighbors and friends.

Floyd was preceded in death by his wife, Peggy Wagner; one brother, Vernon Wagner; and one sister, Evelyn Bonham.

He is survived by his four children, Diane and Eldon Lehman of Mustang, Wayne and Cindy Wagner of Enid, Steve and Sharon Wagner of Enid, and Susan of Enid; five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made through the funeral home to OMRF or Hospice Circle of Love.

“ My sincere condolences to Steve Wagner and Family for their loss of Floyd.

I didnt know Floyd very long but our love of fishing made us instant friends.

Floyd felt inspired after we met to share his secret "Honey Hole" and he had a good one. Floyd was a kind man who was an instant hit with me.

RIP my friend and Keep those hooks sharp for when we meet again.
