“ I was Fred's secretary for over eight years. During that time, he and Ann became close to me and my family. It was an absolute must that every Halloween, we would bring my two girls to Fred and Ann's house to trick-or-treat! Ann always had special candy ready for my girls and we have many annual pictures of the girls in their costumes in front of the Overstreets' fireplace! Even towards the end of Ann's life, they still took an interest in my family. When my first granddaughter was born, they both insisted we bring her over so Ann could see her. And Fred insisted my girls send him their wedding invitations. I didn't see his obituary in time to attend his service, but I send my deepest sympathies to David and Julie, their families and to Valerie's children. Sincerely, Rosie Stubbs

“ Fred and I were first cousins, once removed and six months difference in age. We have maintained contact over the years. Was blessed to visit him soon after he moved to Tulsa. He will certainly be missed by me and all who knew him.
