“ Uncle George Stelzer, the brother of my mother, Norma Jean Stelzer-Odom.

The one & only time I ever saw him, was, let me think, it was at his mother's &, my grandmother's funeral many years ago now. My sisters & I have tried to locate him to find out just what happened to him. I'm not sure who found who, but we had contact with him for a little while. No one knows why families split up & go in different directions, sometimes it is to have peace in the families, sometimes we get involved in our own family life & time just slips away. I know that there are times we wished we could have done things differently. I believe the time will come when we will all have a change to make up for the things, we wanted to do but seemed to never find the time. Until then Uncle George, you Rest in Peace. We Love you & the family too! Dan

“ A memory that sticks out to me of Uncle George is a Phone number that my Sister Dixie came across that she thought might be Uncle George's and wanted to know if I wanted to call to see if it was.. So I did and sure enough it was his and we had a Good Long Talk about the Family.. He told me about my Great Grandfather who escaped Germany and came to America.. It was a Phone call I will cherish forever.. I wish my Mother would have got to spend more time with him and it breaks my Heart that we didn't get more time with him!! Love you Uncle George, Rest in Peace. 🇺🇸🙏❤️🥺👉

My husband who could have been his son was George's roommate in Greenbrier. We loved him and looked after him. This pic was taken right before George went down physically. We will miss his sweet smile,his Boos to try and scare us!! We loved him as if he was our family. Everyone missed him at Greenbrier.
