“ Our sincere condolences to Debbie, Mike, Jerry, Holly, Amy, Chadd, Barbara and all of your families. Gerald was an amazing man. He was kind, thoughtful, loving, fun to be around and gentle. We were blessed to have him and Meredith as neighbors in Friendswood for many years. He made us feel like family and treated our kids like his own grandkids. He loved his grandkids and spoke of Holly, Amy, and Chadd often with love and pride. We shared many happy times with him our backyards and kept in touch when we each moved away. He will be missed. My heart is sad but know he is at peace and will have an everlasting life. We will pray for your heart to heal and your mind be filled with the many happy moments you are blessed with. Love you. May you feel God’ warm embrace during this difficult time. Love, Robert and Vickie Leadbetter

“Gerald was a great neighbor. He could be seen nearly every day working somewhere in his meticulous yard. That big smile he so generously offered to every passerby will certainly be missed in the neighborhood. ~Kathy Burge
