

Grace Elizabeth DeHaas

March 24, 1929 - December 31, 2014

The funeral service for Grace DeHaas, age 85, will be at 10:00 A.M. Saturday, January 3, 2015, at Community Church of the Plains, with Pastor Randal Hackworth officiating. Burial will be at 2:00 PM in Highland Cemetery in Pawnee, with arrangements by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home. Grace was born to John and Juliett (Admire) Lee on March 24, 1929, in Yale, and passed away Wednesday, December 31, 2014, in Enid. Grace grew up in Drumright and graduated from Drumright High School. On April 24, 1950, she married Harry DeHaas in Cushing, and they made their home in Drumright. They later resided in Covington and Plainsville, Kansas, before moving to Garber in 1960. Grace was a homemaker and worked at Garber School Cafeteria for ten years. She enjoyed traveling and fishing. Grace was a member of Community Church of the Plains. She is survived by two sons: Orville DeHaas and wife Sherri of Perry, and Edward DeHaas and wife Mary of Lewisville, Texas; eight grandchildren; and fifteen great-grandchildren. Grace was preceded in death by husband Harry in 2006; three brothers; and three sisters. Memorials may be made to Community Church of the Plains.

Tribute Wall

CC

“ Grace, my aunt and I played skipbo for several years at the Commons. She was a delightful person, full of love. I will miss her. Colleen Cardwell

Colleen Cardwell - January 02, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RC

“ I enjoyed playing the piano for Grace while she was residing at The Commons. She always greeted me with a smile and made me feel special. I'll miss visiting with her!

Robin Cobb - January 01, 2015 at 12:00 AM