

Gwendolyn Ageloff

August 3, 1933 - July 12, 2013

The funeral service for Gwendolyn Ageloff, age 79, will be at 6:30 PM Tuesday, July 16, 2013, at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be in Menorah Gardens Cemetery in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Gwen was born to Clark and Zilpha (Morris) Mann on August 3, 1933, and passed away on Friday, July 12, 2013, at her home in Enid. Gwen grew up in Michigan and graduated from Woodside High School. She married Jack Baldwin and they made their home in Michigan. Gwen was a homemaker, bookkeeper, and a wonderful, cheerful, feisty mother and grandmother who enjoyed being with her family. On November 22, 1987, she married the love of her life, Alfred Ageloff in Fort Lauderdale, where they made their home. Al and Gwen spent their time cooking and laughing over practical jokes between each other. She enjoyed being in the sun at the beach and spent time at home enjoying her family and playing with her grandchildren. Gwen moved to Enid in 2009. Gwen is survived by her children, Jack Baldwin II and wife Rita of Enid, Janelle Baldwin of Enid, Janine Baldwin of Louisville, Kentucky, Brad and Kathy Baldwin of Myakka, Florida, Melissa and Brian Sontag of Gulf Breeze, Florida, and Debbie and David Cohn of Florida; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; sister Joyce and Jerry Vilhauer of Stigler, Oklahoma; nephews and a niece. She was preceded in death by her husband Alfred Ageloff, son Brian Baldwin, and grandson Bradley Charles Baldwin. Memorials may be made to Ross Hospice.
