“ To me Helen was the most beautiful lady. I have the best memories of her when I was around 14 years old and worked for her at the sale barn cafe. I named my oldest daughter after her, because of the classy lady she was.

“ Helen was a sweet, sweet woman. When my mother, Sarah Vanaman, moved into the Burgandy House, Helen was the first one to welcome her. They became fast friends. She helped to make my mother's last few months very happy. She will be missed.
