

Herman John Dittrich

July 11, 1924 - July 22, 2020

Celebration of Life Service for Herman Dittrich, 96 of Enid, will be 2:30 P.M. Saturday, August 29, 2020 at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Kenneth Wade officiating. Cremation arrangements are by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home and Crematory, Enid.

Herman was born on July 11, 1924 in Chicago, Illinois to John and Rose (Merschdorf) Dittrich and passed away on July 22, 2020 in Enid.

Herman married Shirley Jaloszynski on July 5, 1952 in Nebo Lutheran Church in Chicago, Illinois and they had three children.

He served in the U.S. Navy on the destroyer Yardell during WWII. He was self-employed at Admiral Florist and Florist Novelty Products. Herman directed students, aides and volunteers at Triton College, a unique not-for-profit floral shop. He taught the artistic and business aspects of floral design as well.

He was an honorary member of the Garfield County Master Gardeners. He worked for Johnson Seed Company as a researcher agronomist and horticulturist and grower. Herman worked with the O.S.U. Agronomy Department doing workshops and promoting this department of the school. He received a Distinguished Horticulture Service Award from the Department of Landscape Horticulture Service Award.

All of Herman's life was directed to the plants and grasses and trees that grew within his realm. "His advice to all was to look around for the beauty of this world, tomorrow it will change and give you a different view".

Herman was preceded in death by his wife Shirley and son, Mark.

He is survived by his companion, Sandy Williams of Enid; daughters, Lynn Kuhr (Jeff) of Chicago and Diane Best (Natty) of Barbados; five grandchildren, Michelle, Allison and Adrienne Kuhr, Dale and Bryan Best and one great grandchild, Madelyn Ortiz.

Memorials may be made through the funeral to Garfield County Master Gardeners or Elara Care Hospice Enid Division.
