Inez Elgeva Mack was born on September 11, 1944 in Boise City, Oklahoma to James Albert and Nina Mae (Baker) Kohler and passed away February 14, 2026 in Oklahoma City after a sudden illness surrounded by her loving family.

She grew up in Boise City and graduated from Boise City High School. Elgeva then went to Oklahoma Panhandle State College, where she met the love of her life, Leroy Mack. After her children were grown, she went to work in the Bison Post Office, where she retired after many years of service. Elgeva was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church and the Altar Society. She enjoyed spending time with her sisters-in-law, playing Bunco with friends and making daily trips to Sonic. Ultimately, Elgeva was happiest when she was spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren, whom she adored.

Elgeva was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Claude Kohler; son, Charles Mack; great granddaughter, Kaitlynn Amburn.

She is survived by her husband, Leroy; children and their spouses, Roy and Jody Mack, Kressa and Chris Benkendorf, daughter-in-law, Kim Mack; brother and his wife, Jimmy and Sally Kohler; 8 grandchildren, Chrissy (Aaron) Amburn, Andrew (Rylie) Mack, Rylee (Travis) Schnaithman, Kacie (Reid) LeGrand, Mackenna (Cole) Hammock, Chandler (Hannah) Benkendorf, Payton Benkendorf, Emma Benkendorf; 13 great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, several sisters and brothers in laws, and many friends.
