“ Words cannot even describe the love and admiration we classmates, friends, etc. have for this couple, Jack and Ruth Norman! It has been my joy to know them for many many years. Jack suffered through many health issues these last few years. His faithful wife, Ruth attended his needs with loving care and patience every day.....extending his life for many years. Her devotion to her husband should set an example to us all.

Ruth, I have never known such a dynamic devoted couple as you two have been.... the days ahead will be painful for awhile, but eventually & mercifully you will dwell on the good thoughts and times you two had over these many years.

May God bless you, and keep you and your children in these difficult days with the assurance that Jack showed his love for you all..... to all who know you!

Much Love to you all,
Thelma

“ *Well, Ruth, he finally made it! He is the lucky one to get to go to Heaven first, you know. Work life at the Enid News & Eagle was never boring when Jack was around...it is probably still recovering from all his crazy jokes & making others laugh. I pray you have the peace of God over your heart & mind. And when you get to go to Heaven your crown will have many jewels in it as that what you were as a wife to him...a jewel!
