

Jack H. Schlarb

November 6, 1936 - May 29, 2021

Friends and family are invited to attend graveside services at the Aline Star Cemetery for Jack Schlarb of Cleo Springs, on Thursday, June 3rd at 10:30. Arrangements are by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home and Crematory, Enid, Oklahoma.

Jack was born to Clarence Schlarb and Violet Hood Schlarb in Alva, Oklahoma on November 6th, 1936, and passed away on May 29th, 2021, in Fairview, Oklahoma with his wife by his side.

Jack was baptized at age of 12 in Enid and attended Phillips University. He served 9 years in the 45th National Guard in Enid. He worked for the Rock Island Railroad and owned the Carmen Dairy Boy and later worked in the building trades. On February 12, 1961, he married the love of his life, Connie Ewing. For 60 years, Jack and Connie worshiped together, worked together, played together, traveled together and finished each other's sentences. His forever loving wife, Connie, will live with the blessed promise that they will be together again in the presence of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Jack was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Gary. He is survived by his wife, Connie, brother, Larry; six nieces and eight nephews.

Jack resided for the past 11 months at Fairview Fellowship Home and Connie and the family would like to say, "Thank You And Bless You", for the loving care given to him by their staff and by Dr. John Price.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made through Anderson-Burriss to the Cleo Springs Christian Church.
