“ My very first memory was in First grade at Randolph elementary school. We had just returned from Selma, Al and I finished out the year here at "home". "She" was known as Ms. Keel, and she took a very scared, introverted young girl and made her feel less afraid and welcomed her with such a warmth that I have NEVER forgotten her! I went to school with John Adams and when his mom passed we were so saddened. Later, I heard his father was going to marry Ms. Keel! I don't know how many years is known John at this point..20 or more? and I couldn't have been happier! Even though John had moved, I had this funny feeling like "my" Ms. Keel, was back in the family somehow. I've no doubt that the warmth, compassion, and love that a shy little 6 yr old girl that started out with no friends and ended up with a most memorable teacher, continued those same feelings into her new family and throughout her life. My heart goes out to the Adam's family. May God Bless and keep you all, and may the Holy Spirit give you continued strength during these difficult times. R.I.P. my dear sweet Jane Keel Adams. You will remain in my heart forever. 💔
