

Jane Norine Dumler

March 6, 1920 - June 23, 2013

The funeral service for Jane Norine Dumler, age 93, will be at 10:00 AM Wednesday, June 26, 2013, at First Christian Church in Okeene, with Pastor Greg McNall officiating. Visitation will be Tuesday at the funeral home and Wednesday from 8:30 AM until service time at the church. Burial will be in Roselawn Cemetery, with arrangements by Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home, Enid. Norine was born to Grant and Eleanor (Hall) Sproul on the family farm in Isabella on March 6, 1920, and passed away Sunday, June 23, 2013, in Enid. Norine attended Isabella Grade School with her two brothers, Andy and Mark. During her grade school years, Norine (or "Sister" as she was called by her family) became an accomplished oil painting artist. Today her family enjoys numerous pieces of her artwork. After graduating from Okeene High School, Norine attended Oklahoma College for Women in Chickasha, pursuing a Nursing Degree. On December 29, 1939, Norine married the love of her life, Ray Dumler. They spent their married years together raising their family and tending the Dumler family farm along the Cimarron River northeast of Okeene. She most enjoyed the frequent family gatherings at her house, which routinely exceeded "35 Kids". At one of those get-togethers, she was asked "Mom, wouldn't it be nice if we all moved back home?" to which she replied "I am so excited knowing you all are coming, but I am equally as excited when you all leave." She loved her family! Norine was a lifelong member and very active in the First Christian Church and Eastern Star of Okeene. She also was an active member of both the Circle and Club organizations in the Isabella community, where ladies participated in sewing and homemaking exchanges. She lived on the family farm until 2007, when for health reasons she moved to an assisted living center in Enid. Norine is preceded in death by her parents; husband Ray; two brothers and their wives, Andy and wife Lydia, Mark and wife Mary Ellen. She is survived by her children, Larry Dumler and wife Teresa of Purcell, Judy Kephart and husband Jess of Watonga, Linda Gray and husband Robert Dale of Kremlin, and Jane Ann Beach and husband Paul of Bartlesville. She leaves behind 13 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Christian Church of Okeene or Eastern Star Chapter of Canton.
