

Jasie Kaye Randol

April 20, 1981 - March 28, 2026

Jasie Kaye Randol, a woman of profound faith and radiant joy, passed away leaving a legacy of authenticity and compassion. Known for her outgoing nature and deeply caring spirit, Jasie had a true servant's heart. She was, quite simply, fun to be around—a light in every room who loved people fiercely and lived every day with the sole purpose of "making God famous."

Born and raised in Enid, Oklahoma, Jasie was a proud lifelong resident of the community she served so well. She graduated from Pioneer High School before pursuing her passion for helping others at Northwestern Oklahoma State University, where she earned her bachelor's degree. She went on to receive her Master of Social Work from the University of Oklahoma.

As a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and the Clinical Operations Director at Making A Difference, Inc., Jasie turned her passion into her profession. She was a tireless advocate for the less fortunate and a vocal champion for mental health awareness. Among others, she was involved in partnerships with the Austin Box Foundation, Northern Oklahoma College, Child Advocacy Center, and Sooner SUCCESS. Jasie had a heart for the next generation of social workers and provided formal guidance for many practicum students. Her career was not just a job, but a calling to serve others with the same authenticity she brought to every other part of her life.

Jasie's faith was the heartbeat of her existence. At Enid First Assembly, she served faithfully as a Praise and Worship leader, sharing her gift of song to honor God. She was also deeply invested in the next generation, serving as a youth sponsor for the EFA youth group, where she mentored and loved students with her characteristic warmth.

Outside of her professional and ministry work, Jasie found joy in the simple and creative. She was often found crafting, singing, or dancing. She loved taking trips to Branson with her husband, Mike. She cherished the time spent baking with her mother, Yvonne, and the quiet, creative hours spent crocheting with her sister, Abby.

Jasie's love for her family was the cornerstone of her life. She is survived by her devoted husband, Mike Randol; her loving parents, Jeff and Yvonne Chapman; her sister, Abby Ramos, and brother-in-law, Erick. Her family, friends, and church family could always count on her to show up with a willing hand and an open heart.

A service to celebrate Jasie's vibrant life and enduring faith will be held at 10:00 AM on Thursday, April 2, 2026, at Enid First Assembly, with Pastor Jarrod Cloud officiating. Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home.

Jasie loved fiercely. Whether through her professional work in social work or her presence in her church, her mission was always to reflect the love of Christ. She leaves behind a world made better by her kindness and a community inspired by her example of living life authentically for the glory of God.

In honor of Jasie's passion for helping others and her commitment to her community, the family requests that charitable donations be made in her name to the Austin Box Foundation.

“ I was a volunteer with Jasie on the Austin Box community committees. We worked together on a few other committee's. Jasie always had a smile, positive outlook and comforting to everyone around. She was always upbeat and make everyone laugh while we were working. The world is absolutely going to be missing an amazingly beautiful precious lady that light's up a room and your heart ❤️.

“Jasie was full of light and joy. She loved to sing and worship the Lord. Her voice was so beautiful and she was incredibly talented and creative. She fully embraced who she was and shared the gifts God gave her not only to bring beauty and joy into people’s lives but also as a gifted therapist who helped so many families heal and grow.

She was caring, compassionate, and someone who truly loved people well. She loved me exactly as I was, and with her, I never felt like I had to be anything other than myself. From campouts to making up dance routines, and through college and our careers, I’ll carry memories of her with me always.

While my heart is heavy, I have peace knowing she is now in the presence of the Lord. She is whole, at rest, and surrounded by His love. What a comfort it is to know this isn’t goodbye forever.

Thank you, God, for the gift of her life and for the many lives she touched. I will miss her deeply and love her always.

Praying for you now and in the days ahead Mike, Jeff, Yvonne, Abby, and Erick. ❤️

“ Jasie was a ray of sunshine, she was my leader growing up at youth camps and I enjoyed dancing with her at women's events. I will miss you Jasie, but I know we will meet again in heaven one day. God bless everyone in your family.

“Jesie was my counselor for eight years going on nine years somehow somehow she became more than just my counselor. She became my best friend. I love her like a sister. I have a fear of stairs. She has worked with me many of times and helped me get over my fear upstairs there's not going to be another counselor that's going to be the best like she was they might come close, but nobody can replace her. She has a heart made out of gold. She had a personality that shine like a diamond. She liked to laugh joke around. I do know that she loved Jesus Christ and she loved to worship Jesus Christ.”

“Jasie is the reason my daughter can speak to people and my son can live in a group home. She was the first to break through their shells and find ways to communicate with them that worked and led to other mental health workers find any success with them. Jasie spent years being a staple person in our lives, seeing our family five days a week! We are all lovingly devastated by her absence but we know she wouldn't want to be in a world where she doesn't take care of those around her. Jasie loved helping and healing, she was amazing at both. Like so many others that felt her love and compassion we are thankful for the piece of our lives she was instrumental in building and will always cherish the time we were given with her.”
