Jeannine (Mom) was born on August 1, 1937 to Marc and Charlotte (Boine) Friedrich in Toul, France and died November 15, 2020 in Enid, Oklahoma. Jeannine was a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother and devoted Roman Catholic. Jeannine was a warm and affectionate person that had two greets for everyone; "Hello Baby" and "what do you want". The two things that you took away as a person when you left Jeannine's presence was a full heart and full stomach. She always made sure everyone that came to her house was well fed. Jeannine's warmth and affection will live on in the hearts of her family. She taught us how to work hard and love even harder.

Jeannine came to the United States with her first husband Thomas William Tucker in 1959 and resided in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. They later moved to Enid in 1974 with their 3 children. A longtime employee of Central Machine and Tool Company, Jeannine later married Leroy Heckman in 1982. Jeannine loved her family and was a great mother and great grandmother to 9 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. Jeannine was always warm and loving to everyone she met and would always welcome them to her home.

She was a hard working and loving mother to 3 children (Marc, Mike, and Sissy).

Jeannine was preceded in death by her parents and a brother Marc Friedrich. She is survived by her husband Leroy Heckman of Enid, Oklahoma; brothers Roger Friedrich and Cyrille Friedrich of Toul France; Sisters Helen Roudebush of Independence, Missouri and Marriane Baum of France. Children: Marc (Laura) Tucker of Russellville, Arkansas; Michel Tucker of Enid; Sissy (Kyle) Black of Enid and 5 step-daughters Donna, Sue, Debbie, Sherry, Barbie. Grandchildren include: Brandon (Brianna) Crawford of Russellville, Arkansas; Tyler (Samantha) Tucker of Russellville, Arkansas; Todd Tucker of Jacksonville, North Carolina; Step Grand-daughters Chelsea (Eric) Schrock of Dardanelle, Arkansas and Madison Mills of Russellville, Arkansas; Tanner Black of Enid, Taran Black of Enid, Lauren (Beau) Biggers of Enid, and Lane Black of Enid. Great-grandchildren include Aimsley Schrock and Raeleigh Schrock of Dardanelle, Arkansas; William Tucker and Sophia Tucker of Jacksonville, North Carolina; Jaxson Tucker of Russellville, Arkansas; and Nash Crawford of Russellville, Arkansas.

“ Aunt Jeannine,
You were a very special part of our family and we all loved you dearly. I, for one, was fascinated by your accent and worldly beauty and I always enjoyed just being near you.. I know that Mom, Aunt Melinda, Gran, and many others were there to greet you upon your arrival and you are all probably having a ball! I pray that Marc, Mike and Sissy can find comfort in the memories that you all shared and I am thinking of them and keeping everyone who knew and loved you, in my prayers.

“ The first time I met Jeanine was after I returned from Korea in 1960,,,I had just gotten married 2 weeks prior in California,,,and she proceeded to take me in the kitchen and school me on how to treat my new bride,,,needless to say there were a lot of laughs involved,,,She was a wonderful, kind, caring , loving sis in law,,,later,,,we drew apart simply because of my European tour 6 months later and then Vietnam for 44 months,,,I loved her like my own sisters and I know that heaven will certainly open its doors for the newest brightest shining angel,,,God rest my sweet friend and may God bless and help her wonderful family through this hard time,,,Herman Tucker
