“ Joe, I just don't know what to say my dear cousin, but then I have so much to say and be thankful to have had you as my family, I have so many memories of us as kids, us when I was in high school and we doubled dated, of course you always drove us, (you were older), haha. With my memories comes tears flooding back, our many years of of laughter, heartbreak and not seeing each other or me knowing where you were. □ Finally reconnecting and getting to talk about all our fun times and doing things we shouldn't have, (Grandma & Mom would of kicked our butts) anyhow I'm glad you are no longer in pain and can rest easy, but I'm sad you're gone from here. I pray for you're beautiful wife, your daughters and their families (you spoke very highly of Pearl and was blessed to have found her, and your 3 beautiful daughters that you loved so deeply, wish I could have met them). May God surround them as they grieve their loss, Joe help them through and please Joe watch over us all. I'm not going to say , goodbye, it's see ya later because some day I will see you again. Love You Always, your cousin Beth  □

“ My condolences to the Jokerst family. I worked with Joe for many years and I never heard a negative thing come out of his mouth. He impressed me with his positive outlook and gentle personality. I will miss Joe, but I am happy that he will be with God for eternity.
