

John Thomas Dustin

April 20, 1957 - April 9, 2025

The celebration of life service to honor John Thomas Dustin, age 67 of Waukomis, will be 10:00 a.m. Saturday, April 19, 2025, in the Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel. Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home and Crematory.

John was born on April 20, 1957, in Boston, Ma to George and Dolores Powers Dustin, and was called back home to be with the Lord on April 9, 2025 due to a vehicle accident in Enid, OK.

After high school, he joined the U.S. Army, where he served as a lineman and was a sharpshooter. He traveled extensively and some of his passions were playing hockey, and striper fishing at the ocean. He loved to sing and play the drums on the dash of any car or truck he was in. He loved working with his hands. John's main profession was in construction. He loved to read the bible and talk to anyone who would listen.

Some of his favorite things to say were, "Don't let the gray hair fool ya!!", "I do what I'm told and I still get in trouble", "Don't make the Leprechaun come out", "Beanal Baby".

John was a shining light in the lives of all the friends he had the privilege of making along his journey. His passing leaves a void in the hearts of everyone that loved him. We ask that you remember him not for the way his life ended, but remember him for the fun loving, caring, and selfless attitude for always helping others, but mainly for his faith in God.

John was preceded in death by his beloved mother Dolores Powers and his father, George Dustin. He is survived by his brothers, Kevin and MaryAnn Dustin, Bruce and Elise Dustin, his wife Maureen, children Jessica, JP, Daniel, Melinda, David, David, Lisa, Daniel and Matthew. His many grand and great-grandchildren. Also, all of his nieces and nephews. He will be greatly missed by Frances Deshane.

“ *When I die and they lay me to rest
Gonna go to the place that's the best
When I lay me down to die
Goin' up to the spirit in the sky
Goin' up to the spirit in the sky
That's where I'm gonna go when I die
When I die and they lay me to rest
I'm gonna go to the place that's the best
Prepare yourself you know it's a must
Gotta have a friend in Jesus
So you know that when you die
He's gonna recommend you
To the spirit in the sky
Oh he'll recommend you to the spirit in the sky
That's where you're gonna go when you die
When you die and they lay you to rest
You're gonna go to the place that's the best*

We love you Daddy. It's not goodbye, it's I'll see you later. 😭

“ Johnny, I am at a loss of words right now. I know you are not dead bit stand in the Glory of God. You tried with all your heart to be a true Man of Christ. Your heart always went for the Heavenly Father. Our family is grieving knowing we won't see you again until we either get caught up in the rapture or our lives come to the end... This life is nothing but a vapor, As the Word of God says. I know where you are my brother. And I know we will laugh until our belly hurt again. We love you so much. Until my end of construction is finalized. I choose to keep fighting the good fight of salvation. Shalom Shalom Johnny. XXOO Sheri.

Dear Johnny,

I know that we've been out of each other's lives for some 38 years now. When I heard the news, I was shocked, crushed...you were my first love. We met when we were kids basically and married young. We had a beautiful family and I'm grateful for the children we created together. Going through the old pictures with Melinda was bittersweet. It brought back many memories of those younger days, the good times and not so good...

I'm grateful that we were able to talk a few years ago and forgive one another. I'm glad that you were able to help Daniel for a while when you and he were living in NY.

In the pictures I have you are always smiling because that's how you were. When I look at them, I can still hear your laugh, I can still hear you singing to Journey and coming close to matching Steve Perry in the vocals.

Jessica asked me if I think you are in heaven and I told her absolutely I believe that you are. You loved the Lord. We were both saved at the same time and though we both had struggles we knew that God was there.

Life isn't easy or magical but without the Lord it is impossible, at least for me anyway.

Farewell for now, until we meet again beyond the veil...

Love, Dedee
