“The time I spent the summer of 1972 with Aunt Georgia & Uncle Jud. I stayed with Joyce a few times because Don had the night shift. She was alone. We got scared one night .Heard something outside. This was Canutilo. She got out her pistol and was so nervous she was shakin! Couldn't hold the gun still. Thank God it was nothing outside. It so happens there were a lot of Mexican s crossing through there. We had lots of fun & laughs!

“ Joyce was "mom" whenever she was around. She was a giver and gave her love and knowledge freely to everyone she knew. She blessed the lives of many and will be greatly missed.
