“Read this with sadness. Judi & I were proof operators at a bank in Enid in the sixties. She was special. The world list a sweetheart & Heaven gained an Angel. We were close friends. My name then was Wanda Owens.

“Dear Charlie: ken & I send our deepest sympathy to you in the loss of your Judy. You were our faithful mailcarrier & Friend when we lived on West Oklahoma Ave. you would keep us up on Judy's health. We knew her favorite color was purple so we gave her a purple scarf & matching gloves & received such a lovely thank you note from her. We live in Tulsa but send our thoughts & prayers & ask God to comfort you these difficult days. Ken & Eva Heim

“ Sorry to hear of Judi's passing. The last time I saw her she was working at Central National Bank in Enid. That was about 1970. We went to Harrison Grade School together back in the 1950's. What a sweet young lady. Sorry for your loss. Bryan
