

Keith James Roberts

April 12, 1937 - August 7, 2013

Keith James Roberts, 76, died August 7, 2013, at his home in Broken Arrow after a long illness. He was born April 12, 1937 in Colorado Springs to Cecil and Glendeen Roberts. Funeral services are scheduled for 2:00 PM Monday, August 12, 2013, at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home in Enid followed by cremation. Rev. Matt Raines and Rev. Kevin Strobe will officiate. After the service, the family will greet friends at Temple Baptist Church at 2918 W. Randolph. Keith attended schools in Enid, graduating from Enid High in 1956. He served 1 ½ years in the Navy Reserves, then enlisted in the U.S. Air Force, stationed on Shemya Island in Alaska and Zweibrucken, Germany, and then served in the National Guard. He began working in Littleton, Colorado for Martin Marietta on Titan I and II missiles, and for Rocky Flats, Denver as radiation monitor. He retired after 30 years at Pillsbury/ADM in Enid in 2002, and moved to Broken Arrow to be closer to his grandchildren. Keith was a member of Florence Street Baptist Church in Broken Arrow. He was married to his loving wife Delores for 54 years. Also surviving is his son Philip Roberts; his daughter Jamie Cox and husband Steven, all of Broken Arrow; four grandsons Bennett Cox, Trenton Cox, Justin Roberts and Zachary Roberts; two granddaughters Jessica Roberts and Allison Cox; sister Edith Burkett of Guthrie; brothers Bruce Roberts of Enid and Dennis Roberts of Oklahoma City; aunts, uncle, many nieces, nephews and cousins. Keith was preceded in death by his parents Cecil and Glendeen Roberts. Keith's family would like to thank all who cared for Keith through therapists, hospital stays, all his physicians and Green Country Hospice. All were greatly appreciated.

Memorials may be made to the Gideons.
