Kenny was a plumber by trade. His path wasn't always easy. Yet his concerns were always for the feelings of others, but that didn't begin to limit him. He always had that smile. The love of his family was always one of his top priorities.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Milfred and Helen Unruh.

Kenny is survived by his mother, Charlotte and stepdad, Alan Marker of Enid; father, John White of Watonga; brother, Dustin White, niece, Nevaeh, nephew, Landon White all of Enid; paternal grandparents, Randall and Martha White of Fay; many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Memorials may be made through Anderson-Burris to Our Daily Bread or Life Share of Oklahoma.
