“ I knew Kim from the time he started dating Liz. I was the “little sis” to Liz and her sister Frances. Their mom was a tremendous influence in my life. I was a bridesmaid in their wedding. Kim always had a warm hug for me when I had the opportunity to visit. I particularly remember him being in Ft. Worth on business and he took me out to dinner. It was first time being away from home and it meant so much to see someone from back home. Great guy!

“ Looked out our window one snowy morning, there was neighbor Kim Price testing his new snowblower on our driveway! You can't ask for a greater neighbor but especially a great friend than that! After I had life-saving surgery and an extended stay in the hospital, then finally sent home, who always dropped by to make sure I was doing alright and if we needed anything? Kim Price! Always a smile on his face and a whole lot of encouragement, a big part of the healing process. Deep love of family, love of friends, that was Kim Price. We will forever hold a special place in our hearts for Kim and his family!

“ Kim was the best man I ever worked for. He was ornery, tuff and downright hardheaded as he could be, but he did things the way he wanted to and I loved him for that! Always first to help anyone with whatever they needed. I will always miss him!

“ I have enjoyed having Kim as a member of the Antique Automobile Club. I spent the most enjoyable time with Kim working on his vintage cars. His 29 Model A pick was a great learning project for Kim. I will always remember our trips to Wichita to drop off the motor for rebuild and to take parts up there for the project. He will be truly missed.

“ When we were little I remember Kim and I digging a very deep hole in his backyard while our moms were visiting. We would have gone on and on if we hadn't been caught. It was really really deep. Great kid memories. He was little and sitting at the table at my mom and dad's. He didn't like what he was eating so he secretly stuffed the food between the sliding leaf in the table. They discovered later! Loved those times❤️ Sharon Reeds 1st cousins
