“ Omg Babe! It has been 7 years and the pain has not gone away! I think about you every day and my love for you had done nothing but grow stronger! You know they put up one of those big crosses on 74 very close to where you were when you were some tragically taken away! I still go out there sometimes and just sit in the car or sit there on the side of the road and cry! I drove by your place in Garber the other day. I cherish every memory of you and the love we had! We never even exchanged harsh words with each other! You were and still are the most amazing human being I have ever met and even after 7 years with you not here I can not believe you are gone! I miss you with my entire heart and I love you heart mind and soul! You are still my forever!

But I know you are watching over him, over all of us! I can't wait to meet up with you! Know that I will NEVER stop love by and missing you!

“ I hope you know how much I miss you!! I just cant seem to get past the fact that you are gone. I know its been 4 years...4 years that feels like an eternity but 4 years that feels like only 4 weeks. I miss your voice, I miss you laugh, I mis our talks, I miss the way you could calm my psycho side with just a look. I cherish every moment we had, every talk, every touch, every trip, motorcycle rides, making brownies, breakfast in bed, stupid auto correct text messages, every text message. I cherish every moment! You changed my world when you entered it. I think of what we could have been...what we WOULD have been. I am still so lost without you! I love you!! ZERO TOXICITY!

I know you don't want me to be sad, and I know you are still with me but I miss your physical presence in my life! I miss talking to you, I miss hearing your voice, I miss laying in your arms. I miss the calming effect you had on me. I miss your smile, road trips, breakfast, making brownies...looking into your eyes...I miss everything about you. I miss US!

Mistakenly there even was a moment I thought we would share a life together but it was not to b. Sadly it was not to b... I know he is resting high up on that mountain.. ~~ with my deepest sympathy to Tara and Robert and of course Doris. He may be gone but I'll never forget him!!!*

“ I remember the day I met Larry. He came to my apt. at Winchester West with my twin brother, Joe. I was so mad at Joe for bringing someone I didn't know to my place. That was ages ago... It took no time, I'm talking minutes that day, for me to warm up to Larry. He was so kind & funny & Real!!! At the time I didn't know I had met a True Friend. Throughout the years, I met his family Doris & kids. After my twin passed 2 yrs ago, Larry always talked to me about Joe. He had a way to make me feel better & be positive about things. He was always there when I needed him. I can't believe he has passed on too. Its hard to breathe without my person I leaned on so much. I know he is with Joe in Heaven now, & enjoying each other's company as they build Mansions together like they used to. He will be truly Missed and always remembered in my heart. Prayers to his family and friends. Until we meet again...
