Larry was a tall, imposing man. He got quite a kick out of his little sister-in-law nicknaming him "BIG L." He would have enjoyed hearing his last Eucharistic Minister in the hospital sending prayers Heaven ward for Larry, Big L. He was an expert woodworker, crafting furniture and caricature Cowboys, Sailors and Santas. The older he got, the better he got. He seemed to grow in Love and Faith. Larry, you've left a large hole in our hearts with your passing. We'll love you forever, Big L.

He was preceded in death by his son, Larry E. Morris Jr.; and parents.

“ So sad to hear of Mo’s passing. I will always remember working with him and the humor he brought to the office. Mo could always make me smile, even on the tough days. He will remain in my memories. While I can’t remember all the jokes he told, the memory always these never fails to bring a smile. My deepest sympathies to Shelia. You both are in my heart and prayers.

“ Sorry to hear about our ole buddy Mo. Had a lot of good times & laughs working with Larry over the years out in Woodward and Enid. I learned a lot about the Navy, the Western Oklahoma State Psychiatric Hospital in Ft. Supply (Larry worked for his Uncle there a long time ago) and Hastings, OK. Little did I know I would some day live near his childhood home and fish in the lake that covers over some of his old stomping grounds (Waurika) My thoughts and prayers are with Sheila and Family.

“ My Uncle Larry was a fine, good man. A perfect match for the fine, good woman that he married--my Aunt Sheila. I appreciate his service, and I appreciate what a wonderful person he was after his service was done. I thank you, Uncle Larry--both for your service to our nation and for being a good partner to my aunt and a wonderful patriarch to your other family members. May your soul rest in peace, and may you be reunited with all those you loved in life in the hereafter.

Larry was a good brother-in-law, and a fine husband to my sister Sheila. He will be missed, but not forgotten as long as his name continues to be spoken.
